LIBRARY SCHOOLS AND TRAINING COURSES

Library Schools are listed alphabetically by state or province.

This section provides the name of the school, its address, name of the director or dean, names of the staff members, number of yearly visiting faculty, date the program was established, type of school (private, public or denominational), entrance exams required, degrees offered, scholarships granted, and enrollment. The entries also list data on tuition for graduate and undergraduate students, the course offered, and the availability of evening and summer school classes.

The schools marked with an asterisk (*) are those which did not reply to the questionnaire sent to them.

The schools marked with a dagger (†) are those which have first professional degree programs that are accredited by the American Library Association Committee on Accreditation as of 1995 based on the Standards of Accreditations adopted by the ALA Council in 1972.

Once a program is accredited under these standards, periodic revisits for purposes of continuing accreditation are scheduled by the Committee.

A list of the programs accredited by the ALA is issued twice yearly and is available on request to: "Accredited List," American Library Association, 50 East Huron St., Chicago, Illinois 60611, or visit ALA website at www.ala.org.

IOWA

Iowa no longer has Regional Library Service Areas.

KANSAS

In 1965, Kansas Statutes K.S.A. 75-2547 and 75-2548 established seven regional systems to help local libraries provide library services to all citizens of the state. Through the use of joint planning and financing of library services, the systems improve existing library service and utilize what federal funding becomes available.

Originally the systems only served public libraries, but over time their roles have expanded to include school, academic and special libraries. Each system adapts its service to the needs of the libraries it serves, therefore there are services offered in one area that are not offered in another, however, they come together to work with the State Library to develop goals and determine plans for improving library service throughout the state.

Library Systems:

Central Kansas Library System, Great Bend
 North Central Kansas Library System, Manhattan
 Northeast Kansas Library System, Lawrence
 Northwest Kansas Library System, Norton

Each public library will have a designated MSL staff liaison to contact. This liaison will direct the library to the appropriate specialist for their question or need.

This index serves as a guide for locating those libraries, which provide recordings and Braille materials for their patrons.

Each regional library has an individual entry in the Library Section of this directory. Each sub-regional library has a sub-entry under the library of which it is a part. For statistics on NLS (Karen Keninger, Director), see the Library of Congress entry.

Also included are other libraries, U.S. and Canadian, with significant assets (equipment & services) dedicated to the blind and handicapped.
